SOME FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND USEFUL INFORMATION

Where is The Lodge?

The Lodge is perched high in the Swiss Alps in a forested area just a five minute walk from the town of Verbier, and only 250m from the main lift station. Verbier is 51 miles, or 82 kilometres east of Geneva as the crow flies, but the mountains and Lake Geneva tend to get in the way if you're driving!

How do I get there?

The nearest international airport is in Geneva, which is about a two hour drive to The Lodge. Geneva International Airport is served by many of the major international carriers, with flights from most European destinations taking no more than three hours. Private planes are able to land at Sion Airport which is only 45 minutes by car from The Lodge. Please note that Sion Airport closes as soon as darkness falls. Zurich airport is about a 3 hour drive to The Lodge. We can also arrange helicopter transfers on request from Geneva, Zurich and Sion Airports.

We recommend taking the train directly from Geneva Airport to Martigny, a town about a 30 minute drive from The Lodge, or onward to Le Châble, which is a 15 minute drive. We can arrange transfers or taxis for an extra charge to get you to the chalet, or if you alight at Le Châble you can take the cable car directly to the lift station 250m from The Lodge where we can pick you up. The journey takes nine minutes and definitely has the wow factor. Please check with us at the time of booking for when the lifts are operating. The train journey takes slightly less than 2 hours (2 hours 15 minutes to Le Châble) and is a very pleasant way to see some spectacular scenery around Lake Geneva!

If you're visiting us for a longer stay we recommend hiring a car at the airport in Geneva as this will give you the flexibility to explore the area and there are some fantastic trips to Italy and France which are only an hour's drive from The Lodge.

Do I need a visa?

Travellers from the US and the EU do not require a visa to enter Switzerland, but your passport must be valid for at least 6 months beyond your intended return date. Travellers from other countries may require a visa, so please check with your nearest Swiss Embassy or Consulate.

Can I bring my children?

Absolutely! The Lodge is a great place for a family holiday as we have plenty of things for children to do. We have a welcome pack and plenty of great activities available on request, including children's DVDs, toys, a games console, books, games, and treasure hunts in the evenings if they are not too tired after a long day out. We don't offer a set programme, but rather a range of activities suitable for every child. We can also arrange babysitting for an extra charge; just give us at least 24 hours notice, although during busy school holiday weeks and peak times we will need more time to make arrangements. Special food and beverages or simple snacks and light meals can be prepared. Cots are available on request.

Rates for infants, children and young adults

Just what is...

...an infant? a guest under the age of 6

...a child? a guest under 12 but aged 6 or older

...a young adult? a guest under 18 but aged 12 or older

...an adult? a guest aged 18 years and over

Children and young adults staying in the bunkroom or in their parents' rooms are charged CHF 75 and CHF 120 per person, per night respectively in the summer season. Infants stay free of charge provided they share with at least one adult. When hiring The Lodge exclusively, rates for children staying in the bunkroom or in their parents' rooms only apply when the total number of guests exceeds 18. The maximum number of guests at any time at The Lodge is 24.

Can I get married at The Lodge?

Not at The Lodge itself, but we'll host the party! The beautiful mountain scenery will be the backdrop for your special day. Marriages in Switzerland require a civil service at the local registry office, which in the case of Verbier is in nearby Le Châble (about 15 minutes by car). You will need to start planning at least four months in advance of your arrival date, and we will be delighted to help you with all the arrangements.

How about cash? What is the currency?

The currency in Switzerland is the Swiss Franc (CHF). There are cash machines at the airport and in Verbier, and major credit cards are widely accepted. We accept all major credit cards to cover any additional expenses you may incur (gift purchases or treatments in the spa). Tipping is entirely up to you. If you have any questions about tipping, you can discuss them with the General Manager.

When is the best time to visit? What will the temperature be?

Whenever you like. We open from June to September to take advantage of the best of the summer weather. The average daytime temperature in summer is a balmy 26°C/79°F, so be sure to bring some sunscreen with you when you visit.

What is there to do?

The town is host to several events in 2014 including the Verbier Festival and a number of classical music concerts. There are several world-renowned golf courses as well as opportunities for mountain biking, hiking, rock climbing, wine tasting, fishing... we could go on! We have a full list of activities available on request. Check out our website for any special offers.

I don't plan on being too active on the mountain... Is there anything for me to do during the day?

Verbier has plenty to offer including a great selection of shops, boutiques and restaurants. Alternatively, relax and unwind in the comfort of The Lodge, or book yourself into the spa! Ask for our full list of things to do in summer.

What's in my room?

A well-stocked mini bar (Master Suites only), safety deposit box, hot water bottles, bottled drinking water, slippers, luxury bathrobe, phone, radio/CD player, CDs, plug adapters, hair dryer, SPF lip balm and a selection of toiletries. Hair straighteners are available on request. If you want to chill out to your own tunes in your room, we have iPod/MP3 player leads in all guest rooms. There are umbrellas and walking poles available by the front door to the chalet.

What food can I expect?

The food served at The Lodge is one of the highlights of your stay, and we serve a mix of Swiss and international cuisine. Dining can be as formal or informal as you wish, from full four-course gourmet meals to lighter meals with the children. Meals can be themed, traditional or a mix!

In summer meals are served communally, giving you a chance to share what you've been up to during the day with other guests. Private dinners for special occasions can be organised in your room or on your balcony. Check with us when making your reservation for which rooms are best suited for this.

We stock a fine range of international wines, including some fabulous Swiss wines, top quality spirits, beers and excellent house champagne. If you would like us to ship in something special, simply give us plenty of notice – there is generally no extra charge unless the item is particularly rare or extra shipping is involved. As guests are encouraged to treat The Lodge like their own home, they are welcome to help themselves to drinks they want at any time.

Do you cater for special diets?

We understand that some people have special requirements and personal favourites too. Let us know in advance and we'll do our best to make sure we have exactly what you need.

Terms and conditions applying to all bookings

9: Changes and Cancellation by the Company

The Company reserves the right to alter or cancel the whole or part of the booking.

The Company will advise the Client of any changes or cancellations as soon as reasonably possible. Different terms will then apply depending on whether the proposed changes are, in the opinion of the Company, minor or substantial. If the proposed changes are, in the opinion of the Company, minor, the Company will make alternative, comparable arrangements at no cost to the Client, who shall accept such alternative arrangements. If the changes are, in the opinion of the Company, substantial, then the Company may offer alternative arrangements to the Client, but the Client shall not be obliged to accept such alternative arrangements. If no such alternative arrangements are offered in these circumstances, or the Client does not accept any such offered alternative arrangements, then the Client may reject the booking within 14 days of notification to the Client of the relevant change(s) and the Company will cancel the booking. If the Client rejects the booking in these circumstances, all monies which have been paid by the Client to us as at the date of cancellation will be repaid to the Client less the Company's reasonable expenses in respect of the booking. Under no circumstances will the Company be liable to the Client for any financial recompense in the event of a change (whether material or otherwise) which does not lead to a cancellation. Any liability of the Company which may arise in the event of cancellation shall be limited to a refund of monies as provided above. The Company will not be liable for any cancellation which results from the Client's default. Without prejudice to the provisions set out above relating to cancellation, the Company reserves the right to cancel the service or the services it is contractually obligated to provide to the Client and require the Client to leave The Lodge immediately if the Company reasonably considers that the Client's behaviour at The Lodge has caused (or is likely to cause) loss, damage or harm to The Lodge or its reputation or any part of it or is (or is likely to be) objectionable to other guests; in these circumstances the Company shall not be obligated to make any refund of monies to the Client. Further, the Client shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company (for itself and on behalf of its affiliates, agents and employees against any such loss, damage or harm).

10: Liability of the Company

a) We accept no liability for ensuring that the accommodation which you book with us is provided as described in this brochure, save where any part of your accommodation is not provided as described in this brochure due to the fault of our employees or agents and this has adversely affected your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (b) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the aggregate amount paid by you to us for your accommodation with us.

b) Nothing in paragraph (a) above shall exclude or restrict our liability or responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of, their employment or engagement in the provision of your accommodation with us.

c) For the avoidance of doubt the Company will not be liable for loss or injury suffered by the Client which was outside the control of the Company. We recommend that you obtain suitable insurance to cover loss or injury. The Company shall not be obligated to make any payments in those circumstances other than as otherwise referred to in the terms and conditions above.

11: Force Majeure

We act on the advice given by the government of the United Kingdom and the government of your home country. If flights are grounded because of war or terrorism or you are advised by your government that it is unsafe to travel, we will do all we can to make it easy for you to postpone your holiday. We will never impose any cancellation penalties for accommodation cancelled at The Lodge if government advice means that you can't travel. Please contact one of our reservations offices if you are concerned about travel due to war, terrorism or similar events.

12: Entire Agreement; Variation and Waiver; Severance

These terms and conditions constitute the entire understanding in relation to their subject matter and supersede any previous explicit or implied agreement or undertaking between the parties with respect thereto. The Company reserves the right to alter these terms and conditions from time to time and will notify the Client of any changes as soon as reasonably possible using the postal or email contact details provided by the Client for the Client's booking. The amended terms and conditions will apply to any Client booking that commences after the date of such notification. No other variation, waiver or release of these terms and conditions shall be effective unless it is made by the Company and notified to the Client in accordance with this paragraph. If any part of these terms and conditions is void or unenforceable due to any applicable law, it shall be deemed to be deleted and the remaining provisions of these terms and conditions shall continue in full force and effect.
