HARD ROCK HOTELS

Just as rock 'n' roll spread around the world with a rhythm that brought all sorts of cultures and fans together, so Hard Rock expanded worldwide with hotels that promised to be more than just a place to stay. From the moment music legend Eric Clapton donated his guitar – the first piece in our collection – to the Hard Rock brand, we have defined rock as much more than just an art form – it is a way of life. That's why anything is possible in our hotels and it's how we make childhood dreams of stardom flourish and come true. Exclusive amenities, state-of-the-art technology, first-class restaurants, stunning swimming pools, high-quality entertainment for the whole family, concerts by well-known international artists and a great time 24 hours a day in some of the most extraordinary destinations in the world: this is what awaits you at Hard Rock Hotels.

SPAIN

IBIZA

If there is one destination where passion for music, love for nature and opportunities for leisure abound, it is Ibiza. Over the years, its magnetism and beauty have attracted some of the most renowned international musicians and stars, and this has helped to create the style of an island known for its free spirit and for hosting the most eagerly-awaited concerts every season. The hotel, located on the famous Playa d'en Bossa, next to the Ses Salines nature reserve, is strategically located only 5 km from the centre and 4 km from the airport.
